

CHLORINE test

Method

After the milking machine is cleaned with DM-CID (DM-CID-S), the water can be checked for residues of chlorine.

Procedure

1. Fill the cup with 5 ml of the sample
2. Add 4 droplets of the reagent
3. Determine with which color the color change of the reagent coincides most exactly. The color change provides a semi-quantitative measure of the Cl₂ concentration in the sample.

